

FEATURED ALUMNI

Emlyn Jacoby is from Johannesburg, South Africa, and currently lives in Iowa. He graduated in 2010 with a major in Business Administration, focusing on Finance and Marketing. He says that UMFK "brings a sense of belonging, a helping hand no matter the issue. UMFK provided me the stepping stones and laid the foundation for future success in the classroom or in the professional field."

FEATURED PROFESSOR

Roger A. Roy is an Associate Professor of Mathematics and Business and chair of the University's Professional Management division at UMFK. Professor Roy earned his Ph.D. in Human Resources Management from the University of Maine. He was elected a regional director to the Board of Directors of the International Assembly for Collegiate Business Education (IACBE) at its annual conference, held March 30 to April 1, 2011 in Las Vegas, Nevada.

FEATURED CURRENT STUDENT

Andrea Baril says she believes that "the method of teaching allows the students to use their creativity by building projects and solving problems in a fun learning environment. My favorite classes are Global Marketing and Market Research. When I graduate, I plan on going to grad school to pursue my studies in Sports Management. I play for the UMFK Women's Soccer Team. I am an assistant at the UMFK Public Relations office and an assistant to the Athletic Director at UMFK."

INTERNATIONAL ACCREDITATION

The IACBE accredits business degree programs in colleges and universities throughout the United States and internationally. It is the accrediting body for UMFK's professional management programs (Business Management, Rural Public Safety Administration, Electronic Commerce, and Computer Applications). UMFK has been accredited by the IACBE since 2007. The IACBE is the premier professional accreditor of business programs in student-centered colleges and universities throughout the world. The IACBE exists to promote, develop, and recognize excellence in business education.

www.umfk.edu/admissions

